

The Wounded Healers

INQUIRY IN ACTION

“Do you have the patience to wait till your mud settles and the water is clear?
Can you remain unmoving
till the right action arises by itself?”

LAO TZU

REFLECTION

To get to a deeper place together, we have to deepen our mutual understanding by opening the space of “not knowing.” By offering questions that bubble up from a genuine desire to understand better and from the holding of the tension between differences, we can access a collective wisdom or synergy and move toward richer solutions.

 Language (and tone, etc.) are important in asking a genuine question:

For example, share the source of the Q: ‘I understood you to mean....Is that correct?’

+ ‘Invite’ implies another aspect of a genuine Q: the desire to hear a response:

For example: ‘I’d love to hear what you think.’ OR ‘Help me to understand...’